Human values are the virtues that guide us to take into account the human element when we interact with other human beings. Human values convey a positive and affective surge, which reinforces the rationale of moral values. They are the values that permit us to live together in harmony, and personally contribute to peace. Human values are a tool to manage human relations and a tool for peace when the tension is high.

Bhaktivedanta Institute is an internationally acclaimed non-profit organization dedicated towards the cause of helping humanity through the interface of modern science and technology with spiritual traditions of the world. The institute board mostly comprises of alumni and faculties of IITs (Indian Institute of Technology) who are well-established in their academic pursuits and are open and have a keen interest in the wisdom hidden in various spiritual traditions.

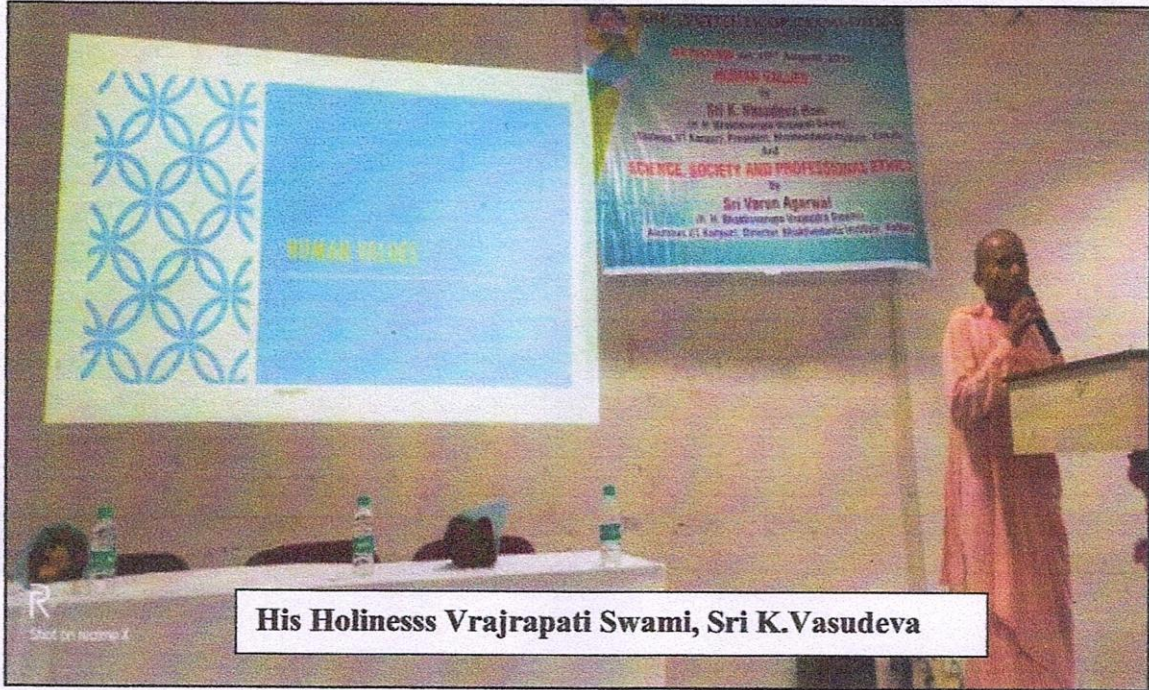

Our college, SRK Institute of Technology, recently organized a one day program on "Human Values and Society, Science and Professional Ethics. A Talk on Human Values was given by Sri. K Vasudeva Rao, known as His Holiness Vrajrapati Swami, President, Bhakti Vedanta Institute, Kolkata. Sri. Varun Agarwal, His Holiness Vrajendra Swami, Director, Bhakti Vedanta Institute, Kolkata spoke on Society, Science and Professional Ethics. In this program, they gave a deep insight on many topics regarding Human Values and Professional ethics. Our students acquired plenty of knowledge about the discussed perspectives in human values and professional ethics.
