Description:-

The speaker speaks about Violence against women is also known as gender-based violence and sexual and gender abuse violence. This is a crime committed primarily or exclusively by violence. She also informed the students that violence against women is a form of the crime made to humiliate women or young girls. who they thought can't fight for themselves or having anyone fighting for them even if they speak up, is more like marginalization to this particular gender. Statistically, it is proven that about 100,000 murders have been committed against women from 2021-2022, violence against women has a very long-lasting history through the incidents and the intensity of such violence has varied over time and till today, she also explains about varies societies, such violence is often seen as a mechanism for the subjugation of women either in society. This kind of violence may arise from a sense of entitlement, superiority or similar attitudes toward the perpetrator or his violent nature, especially against women.

Program outcome:-

- Students got tips to Prevent Gender-Based Violence and Inequality
- Educate yourself on the root causes of violence. ...
- Be critical and question. ...
- Interrupt abuse. ...
- Stop sexual harassment. ...
- Develop an action plan. ...
- Stop victim blaming. ...

TIME : 03:00 P.M.
VENUE : Ground floor Seminar Hall (Block-A)
CHIEF GUEST : Mrs Ch.Radha Kumari, Advocate, Child Welfare
Committee member

National girl child day is celebrated every year on the 24th of January to create awareness about the rights of the girl child, to remove gender-based bias and education of girl child.

The main objective of celebrating national girl child day in our college was

- To focus on the need to address the challenges of gender bias in our society and the whole purpose of the day is to change society's attitude towards females.
- To increase awareness among students on the importance and role of girl child in society
- To remove all inequalities faced by girl children.
- To ensure equal rights for them. Human and Social and also to promote creativity among the students of our college.

The programme started with a prayer song by I B.Tech students. Then our beloved Principal Dr.M.Ekambaram Naidu addressed the gathering. Later the chief guest of the programme Mrs Ch.Radha Kumari, Advocate, Child Welfare Committee member delivered an inspiring speech on what are the rights have a girl child and how to claim girl child rights legally. The programme concluded with the National Anthem.
